The Communique Awards has celebrated excellence in healthcare communications FOR 24 YEARS.

During that time, 522 people have judged the awards.

Through them, 308 different companies have been represented.

In total, the judging panel has been made up of:
- 67% AGENCIES
- 24% PHARMA COMPANIES
- 9% PATIENT ASSOCIATIONS

  Alongside an additional 31 independent judges

IN THE FIRST 16 YEARS, 301 PEOPLE WERE INVOLVED IN JUDGING. DRIVEN BY OUR COMMITMENT TO DIVERSIFY THE JUDGING PANEL, IN THE LAST FIVE YEARS 221 MORE PEOPLE HAVE BEEN INVOLVED IN JUDGING, WITH 19 NEW JUDGES INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN 2021.

Since 2013, organisations have entered the Communique Awards. 427 organisations are made up of 212 agencies and 215 pharma companies, charities and associations, and the NHS.

Of which, 27% have either won or received a high commendation.

A TOTAL OF 66 INDIVIDUAL AWARDS HAVE BEEN GIVEN

THREE NEW CATEGORIES HAVE BEEN INTRODUCED FOR 2021:
- EXCELLENCE IN MEDICAL AFFAIRS – OPERATIONS
- AGILITY AND FLEXIBILITY AWARD
- LEADERSHIP AWARD FOR ACTION ON WORKFORCE DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION
